

Case Study from Essex Further Education College

MAX Conflict Management were booked first in November 2010 for Anti-Bullying Week

- 2010 An hour's talk with Top Tips on how to handle bullying delivered at three college campuses and followed the next day by a special session for some of the most vulnerable students, including meeting The Intimidator™ which means active experiential learning – here demonstrated by some of the staff supporting the learners.

- 2011 Same delivery at three college campuses as in 2010 with The Intimidator™ and also The MADMAXMAN™

see next page for more feedback from the students

How will you use this information in the future?

I will a Loud voice instead of my fists.

What did you find interesting?

I found that bullying point was interesting.

What did you think of the seminar?

I thought it was very good.

What did you find interesting?

how to protect yourself the right way.

Did you find it helpful?

Yes, made me feel laugh too.

Date: 22/11/2011

University college
Campus: Rainham Southend-on-sea

What did you think of the seminar?

very interesting.

What did you find interesting?

The whole hour

Did you find it helpful?

very much

How will you use this information in the future?

If I get into a danger

What did you think of the seminar?

great and interesting

What did you find interesting?

all of it

Did you find it helpful?

yes

How will you use this information in the future?

to protect my self safely
and responsibly

What did you think of the workshops?

Motivating

What did you find interesting?

How there other ways of dealing with things.

Did you find it helpful?

yes

How will you use this information in the future?

use techniques taught

What did you think of the workshops?

It was very good

What did you find interesting?

I ~~find~~ find that the whole guide was interesting on what to do if in

Did you find it helpful?

yes idid.

How will you use this information in the future?

I will use it if in need.